Guidelines for use by individual members

DEFINITIONS

T6A: The 61508 Association is referred to in the rest of the document as: “T6A”

Logo: The logo shown above is the official logo of T6A. In the rest of this document it is referred to as “logo”.

Committee: The management committee of T6A is referred to in the rest of the document as, committee.

Coordinator: The coordinator of T6A is the keeper of these guidelines

Member: Any member of the association who is paid-up.

SCOPE

This document provides guidelines on the use of the T6A logo by its members.

These guidelines are not intended to be prescriptive; they reflect the intention of the committee to control use of the logo in a sensible and equitable manner by the members.

The committee are confident that members will abide by the spirit of these guidelines.

AUTHORITY

The committee determine the guidelines and may edit them from time to time as necessary.

Members wanting to modify these guidelines are to contact the coordinator (preferably by Email) so that their requests may be logged and dealt with by the committee in a controlled manner.
MISUSE OF THE LOGO

The decision of the committee on any such misuse is final.

GUIDELINES

1. Members may use the logo on their company documents only for the purpose of claiming membership of the association.

2. The member must not imply by use of the logo that the association in any way endorses the member’s products or services.

3. Members do not need to seek permission to use the logo. They are trusted to abide by the spirit and intent of these guidelines.

4. Copies of the logo may be obtained by Email from the coordinator.

5. Nothing may be added to, or taken from, the logo when it is used by a member.

6. Any member may use the logo on his home web page in accordance with the rules contained in the association’s website management policy.

7. If a member ceases to be a paid-up member that member must cease use of the logo.